

Portuguese inflows into Andorra reaches new minimum in 2021

2022-08-16

According to data from the Andorra Department of Statistics, 206 Portuguese entered Andorra in 2021. This agency accounted for a total of 3,956 foreigners entering the country, with the Portuguese accounting for 5.2% of immigration in that year. +

In 2021, Portuguese arrivals in Andorra reach the lowest value of the entire series under analysis, having registered a decrease (-11.2%), while total arrivals of foreigners in the country recovered compared to 2020 (+42.1%). After a peak in 2005, Portuguese emigration to Andorra fell abruptly between that year and 2014 and has since remained stable at comparatively low levels. In 2008, Portuguese emigration to Andorra fell the most (-54%), reflecting the abrupt and profound nature of the real estate crisis in Spain. In the years, the number of Portuguese entries in Andorra had been increasing very slightly, exceeding the level of 400 per year in 2019. Despite the decrease in 2020 and 2021, the Portuguese were the third nationality that registered the most entries in Andorra.
